

April 27, 2015

Working up an appetite for Hamptons summer

Catch, the Meatpacking District hot spot, has added 70 seats to its redesigned roof terrace, bringing the total number of outdoor seats to 150. The new space, which opens Monday, features floor to ceiling window walls.

New executive chef John Beatty will also introduce specials to the menu including grass-fed rack of lamb with ramp pesto, and hamachi with yuzu and scallions.

jkeil@nypost.com